Seriously. The man's still as handsome as ever. Okay, so he's retired from the Memphis Police Department, but he still has a killer smile and a great set of pipes. He's still got the devil's own sense of humor, too. On a recent birthday of mine, when I gave him his present, I asked him, "You want me to fix this up in cowboy boots and a Stetson?" He looked at me and smiled, "No, no. Let's just keep it simple. We'll go to the sandwich shop and get some good 09e8f5149f

Seeking to find some explanations behind India's belligerent behaviour against Pakistan, the Foreign Office said that in the last decade, the country has adopted an aggressive policy of isolating Pakistan globally by portraying its leadership and institutions as terrorists. An editorial in the state-run Dawn newspaper noted that India had been using the prestige of a world military superpower to promote its narrative of perpetual "war on terror" and has utilised the discourse of human rights and accountability to undermine Pakistan in the international arena. The editorial, titled "India: Pakistani lives are worthless", said that India has been repeatedly threatening to use nuclear weapons over the
