Saving The best way to protect your work from accidental erasure, accidental deletion, and damage from other software, is to `_save_` your work (explained in detail on Quick Setup). You can also save often during image editing to minimize the risk of losing work. It's smart to save often, especially during the earliest stages of editing. You can save your work by clicking the File menu's Save As command to use the Save dialog box, as shown in Figure 3-9. From the Save As type menu at the top of the dialog box, choose JPEG or TIFF, as shown in Figure

Double-N syndrome: The increasing prevalence of aetiological agents in pyridoxine-responsive seizures. Double-N syndrome (DNS), double-response malabsorption (DRM), is a rare, life-threatening disorder characterised by the association of a severe vitamin B6 deficiency and a deficiency of pancreatic enzymes. To date, nine cases of DNS have been reported. All patients presented with symptomatic seizure disorders which resolved after a specific vitamin-free diet. We report a further case of DNS in a 6-year-old girl who presented with recurrent seizures. To our knowledge, we present the first paediatric case of DNS with a wide range of aetiological agents. Tunisia at the 1980 Summer Olympics Tunisia competed at the 1980 Summer Olympics in Moscow, USSR. This was the first time Tunisia participated in the Summer Olympic Games. Tunisia entered two competitors in the athletics competition. Neither reached the final, as Monia M'hiri in the 400 meters and Gehad Waziry in the 800 metres. In the women's field, the team also didn't finish the race. He will start the regular season in an unfamiliar defensive alignment, playing second base in an infield that's all but guaranteed to feature many second and shortstop configurations. It wasn't a surprise that the Cubs made no change to Rizzo's everyday job, or to his spot in the order, but he's going to have to acclimate himself to a spot that doesn't have the glaring hole on the other side. That hole was filled last year by Ian Happ, who also spent some time in the No. 2 hole. Rizzo isn't an immediate upgrade over Happ's skills. But he's younger, and he's got more experience, and that will help for the long haul. After Tuesday night's World Series Game 5 loss, general manager Jed Hoyer said of his second baseman, "I think it's just that our system

Davon Reed, QB, Pittsburgh: It's been reported that Reed has been suspended for violating team rules. Reed was the team's second-round pick in 2012. John Phillips, WR, Dallas: According to the Dallas Morning News, the Cowboys believe that Phillips ran into a street sign in an offseason workout accident. Phillips had surgery on both his shoulders in March and suffered a minor stress fracture in his other shoulder. The Cowboys removed Phillips from the team's active roster in September, making him the longest-tenured current Cowboys player. Marquise Goodwin, WR, San Francisco: Goodwin will miss the season opener at Green Bay with a hamstring injury. Goodwin has experienced hamstring problems since he enrolled at the University of San Diego as a freshman. Bill Barnwell: This is not a story we'll be hearing much about until we hear a No. 1 pick sign to play. It seems like that would be a piece of cake for the Patriots to steal and can be started as early as Week 7.... The Rams are in the game because of the Bears, but the Bears aren't in the game because of the Patriots..... How is this done ? I am thinking of the last evaluation he had where his rating went from 6.8 to 7.9 and he earned a 12% pay raise. This evaluation period was 6 months. When is the next evaluation period going to be? Thanks JimQ: How do I run a "docker-compose up" script once and be done with it? I have a python docker-compose file where I need to run a script once on a server. The script is only running on one server (via docker compose). Is there any way to run the script once and to be done with it? I am thinking about something like "docker-compose up
